Letter No. 5632 ITC

Dated: 25-06-2020.

OFFICE ORDER

Sub: Intimation for temporary discontinuance of use of vehicles (Off Road) by vehicle owners through email (online).

Instruction was issued vide this office order Nos.6210/TC. Dt.25.03.2020 & 4367 dated 22.04.2020, laying down procedure to declare off road of different transport vehicles (Buses, Trucks etc.) relating to the month of April, 2020 & May, 2020 i.e during the Lockdown period. Section 10(1) of OMVT Act 1975 provides that a vehicle can be declared off road for a period of six months at a time. Some vehicle owners may not have applied for six months at a time or some might have on-road their vehicles as intra-state movement has been allowed. Since the normalcy is yet to be achieved as far as COVID-19 is concerned, the vehicle owners may declare their vehicles off road for further period after 30.06.2020 up to maximum period of six months as prescribed under statute. The vehicle owners are required to fill up the Form-H and undertaking in format as annexed which can be down loaded and uploaded in official mail id of concerned Regional Transport Officer on or before 29.06.2020. The entry in VAHAN-4 may not be ensured in case the application is not received through e-mail on or before 29.06.2020. In such cases the vehicle owner may have to visit RTO office for physical submission of off road intimation as per rules.
